1           1. Statement of Facts and Events Underlying This Action.

2           Plaintiff, J & J Sports Productions, Inc., claims that the Defendant Hilario Chico Chico,
3 individually and d/b/a Olivia's Brunch Restaurant misappropriated a televised professional boxing
4 Program to which the Plaintiff owned the exclusive commercial exhibition rights and thereafter
5 exhibited the Program at the commercial establishment (Olivia's Brunch Restaurant) in San
6 Francisco, California, which they operate. The subject Program, broadcast on Saturday, July 31,
7 2010, was the "Fight of the Year: The Rematch!": Juan Manuel Marquez v. Juan Diaz (hereinafter
8 "Program ").

10           2. The Principal Factual Issues to Which the Parties Dispute.

11           Plaintiff is unaware at this time of which principal factual issues remain unresolved.

12
13           3. The Principal Legal Issues to Which the Parties Dispute.

14           Plaintiff is unaware at this time of which principal factual issues remain unresolved.

15
16           4. Other Factual Issues Which Remain Unresolved.

17           Plaintiff is unaware at this time of which principal factual issues remain unresolved.

18
19           5. The Following Defendant Has Not Been Served.

20           The defendant has been duly served.

21
22           6. Consent to Jurisdiction By a Magistrate Judge

23           The Plaintiff does not consent to a jurisdiction of this action by a Magistrate Judge.

24
25           7. Disclosures

26           If necessary, the Plaintiff will serve the defendants with its Initial Disclosures on/or December 2, 2011.
